Mop-Up Squad Hits Milwaukee

Four Owners of Downtown Establishments Are Brought Into Federal Court
12 ARRAIGNED MONDAY

May Raise Bail in Order to Prevent Offenders from Jumping Their Bonds.

By Associated Press
Milwaukee — Four proprietors of downtown establishments faced United States Court Commissioner Kellogg Tuesday as a result of raids Monday by a squad of government prohibition agents all new to Milwaukee bootleggers. Half a hundred government agents have been secretly brought into Milwaukee and have conducted a series of raids. Twelve alleged violators who were charged with having sold intoxicating drinks to federal agents were arraigned Monday. Cash bonds were furnished in all cases. Bail in future cases of sale and possession charges will be higher than the usual $500. Commissioner Kellogg announced. This action is being taken, it was said, as the result of disclosures by John R. Madden, chief of the prohibition enforcement unit and E. J. Koelzer, assistant United States attorney, that plans are being made by a number of violators for jumping their bonds. The new figures will range from $750 to $1,500 it was said. The raids here, according to reports, are the start of a campaign to "mop up" the city as threatened recently in a statement from Washington.

CELLAR IS DRY
Milwaukee—Senator Bernard Gettelman's cellar is dry according to a statement made Tuesday by Rev. G. Kenneth MacInnis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here.

Speaking for those who were interested in knowing exactly the content of the cellar, Mr. MacInnis said: "So far as we have been able to discover, Senator Gettelman has kept within the law. He has not been making intoxicating liquor, his friends and neighbors are ready to testify. His beer is near-beer and his wine is grape juice. "How did we find out there was no real beer or real wine in his cellar? "That was easy. We have secret ways of getting such information through good citizens who are interested in law enforcement." Senator Gettelman, at a senate committee hearing on amendments to modify the severson law declared he had real beer in his cellar, wine also. This statement aroused the dry element and Senator Gettelman was the storm center during the past week. He is now in Madison, and will appear in the senate Wednesday to continue his fight against the state prohibition enforcement law.

BOY ADMITS HE WAS IN TRAIN ROBBERY PLOT

By Associated Press
Waukegan, Ill. — Ralph McKee, messenger boy of the quartet charged with attempting a robbery on the Chicago and Northwestern Viking express that resulted in the murder of Russell Sako Dickey, testified that he had been the go-between, carrying the word from Edward J. Smith and Bernard Smith, Chicago policemen, as the plans for the robbery developed. "I had eaten with Dickey, drunk with him, he was my friend and I would not have entered into anything that might have brought physical harm to him," He testified. "I told Ed Smith in Milwaukee the night of the robbery that I was in of the whole thing and wished I hadn't gone into it. He laughed at me and said I was not implicated in any way."

FISH AND GAME BILL SENT TO COMMITTEE

By Associated Press
Madison—The appropriation bill for the state conservation commission carrying more than $250,000 in allocations was taken from the senate calendar Tuesday on motion of Senator A. E. Garey, administration floor leader, and referred to the committee on finance "to allow the matter of the Mississippi river fish and game refuge bill to be adjusted." Senator Garey said that it might appear later that a large appropriation for the commission might be needed. His statement to the senate is regarded by senators as significant of an early settlement of the dispute which has been rife on assembly bill 88, a proposal to accept the government offer to establish a fish and game refuge in Winnebago bottoms, along the Mississippi river.

COOLIDGE NOW HAS CHANCE TO PROVE CALIBRE

With Congress Adjourned, He Has Stage to Himself in Hour of Opportunity

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1925 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge has entered upon what some of his friends characterize as his "golden opportunity." He has the stage to himself. He has economy and efficiency as his slogans. And he has a willing cabinet to help him. Ever since congress adjourned, the president has been trying to catch up with the many tasks that were necessarily sidetracked when he was busy with pending legislation. Some of his well wishers thought he was making a big mistake by failing to announce a call for an extra session to begin at once a program of tax reform as well as reduction. Mr. Coolidge took the view that the country wanted "a rest from legislation" and he intends to call no extra session unless some unforeseen emergency arises, though there still is talk of bringing congress here a month or so earlier than December simply to get started.

BLAINE'S HIGHWAY BILL NEAR DEFEAT IN STATE SENATE

Motion to Adjourn Forestalled Coalition Attack on Administration Measure

By Associated Press
Madison — A motion to adjourn made in the state senate shortly before 1 o'clock Tuesday apparently was all that saved the governor's bill to provide a new method of selecting members of the state highway commission from defeat. Roll call on preliminary bills leading up to final consideration showed the administration forces in the minority with three of their number absent and the Socialist bloc voting with the conservatives on the measure which would have the effect of eliminating the two ex-officio members of the state highway commission. From the moment the bill was called up for consideration on a vote on engrossment, with no recommendation for the highway committee to which it had been referred, the atmosphere of the senate became charged with verbal battle.

Motions to refer the bill to the committee on state and local government, to lay it over to Thursday and to lay it on the table were in turn defeated by the Socialist-conservative coalition. While the debate was on Senator Max Tieck threatened a call of the senate of conservatives pushed a vote on the question of indefinite postponement made by Senator E. J. Roelke.

Administration leaders including Senators Garey, Crabman, Barber and Johnson charged the bill had never had a proper hearing there being no appearance for or against it when it came before the committee on highways about ten days ago.

FLOUR PRICES DROP TO LOWEST LEVEL OF YEAR

Minneapolis.—Flour prices here sank to the lowest levels this year, reflecting the severe decline in wheat quotations Monday. Flour of the best patent quality was quoted Tuesday at figures 40 to 50 cents a barrel lower than Monday, the range being $8.10 to $8.15 a barrel in carload lots.

Psychosis Is Blamed For Murder Of Girl's Mother

San Francisco, Calif.—Dorothy Ellington came into the superior court here Tuesday prepared to listen to alienists employed by her counsel brand her as one who is insane in the hope that the 16-year-old stenographer will be sequestered in a mad house and thereby escape the possibility of a penitentiary sentence for the killing of her mother, Mrs. Anna Ellington. The murder trial was halted Monday when the court dismissed the regularly impaneled jury temporarily and ordered a new jury picked to pass on Miss Ellington's mental qualifications. The basis of the test, according to pronouncement made by the court, was "whether a person accused of crime comprehended the proceedings and was able to present an intelligent defense."

The insanity issue was injected into the proceedings out of the orderly trial which was marked by Miss Ellington falling into fainting spells almost hourly. Twice she fell flat on her face in the marble corridors leading out of court. Miss Ellington, who shot her mother to death when her parent objected to the hour and associates she was keeping angrily resented Monday the imputation that she is not in her right mind.

Dr. Jan Don Hall, defense psychiatrist, testified that Miss Ellington was suffering from "psychosis and was out of her mind at times."

By Associated Press

Daeschner's recent call upon Mr. Kellogg. CRASH KILLS, INJURES 40 AND WRECKS ENGINES

Moscow — More than 50 persons were killed or injured in a head-on collision between the Tashkent express and a Moscow suburban train Monday night. The disaster, which was one of the worst in Moscow's history, occurred about a mile from the capital. The locomotives were shattered and several of the passenger coaches reduced to fragments. Lack of derails made difficult the work of extricating the victims pinned under the wreckage. The rescue parties also were hampered because of the darkness.

Oshkosh Switchman's Body Severed By Train

Walter Eichman, 21, of Oshkosh, met a tragic death at 3:30 Monday afternoon at Appleton Junction when his body was severed by a moving freight car. The accident happened when his foot was caught in a switch frog. Death was instantaneous. Walter Eichman, 21, of Oshkosh, met Chicago and Northwestern railway as a switchman. He was working with an engine that was moving cars onto a siding in the new switchyards at the junction. While attempting to lift a coupling pin on a box car to release it from the engine his foot caught in the switch frog. He was drawn beneath the box car and dragged 25 feet. The wheels of the car passed over him just above the hips, cutting his body in two. Both legs were broken.

The body was taken in the police ambulance to Wichmann undertaking parlor. It was later conveyed to Oshkosh where funeral services will be held at the home at 321 Seventh-st. Eichman is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eichman and eight brothers, John Edward, Harry, Burton, Gordon, Robert, Clifford and Richard, all of Oshkosh. Otto Eichman, an uncle of the dead man, was in charge of the switching crew and the engine was in the hands of A. Knipple of Green Bay, engineer.

NO KICK FROM GAS FIRMS ON STATE TAX ORDER

By Associated Press
Madison—The gasoline price publicity order, proposed by Edward Nordman, state commissioner of markets, to prevent discrimination against certain classes of buyers, will have little opposition from the oil interests, preliminary advice received at the marketing department indicate. Refiners, jobbers and retail dealers will be represented at the hearing on the order next Friday. It was announced today. The gasoline users will be represented by officials of various automobile and motorists' associations.

MA-FERGUSON SIGNS BILL GRANTING FULL AMNESTY TO HUSBAND

By Associated Press
Austin, Texas.—Full political and civil rights were restored today to former Governor James E. Ferguson, impeached in 1917, when his wife, the first woman governor of Texas, signed the amnesty bill passed by the last legislature. "I have signed my name many hundreds of times since becoming governor, but this is the happiest signature I have written," Mrs. Ferguson said as she laid down the pen of gold.

Preparatory to the appointment by the President of the American delegation to the conference, which meets May 4, under the auspices of the League of Nations, the secretary of state conferred Monday with Secretaries Weeks, Wilbur and Hoover.

COOLIDGE WON'T CHANGE MIND ON O. K. OF SOVIET

Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge is still unresponsive to suggestions from any quarter that the administration policy with regard to Russia be changed. It sees no warrant for present consideration of proposals to recognize the soviet government as conditions which have continuously prompted denial of recognition remain the same. Neither does he believe that recent developments bearing on the attitude of the other powers toward recognition necessitate a review of the American attitude.

MAY INVITE MEXICO TO JOIN WORLD LABOR PARTY

By Associated Press
Geneva — Whether Mexico will be invited to join the international labor bureau and whether Germany will be requested to pay her two year's back dues as a member are questions on the agenda for the labor organization board meeting here beginning Thursday. Mexico has been putting out feelers indicating she will join if invited and Van Oudegeest, the Netherlands labor leader, is conducting a campaign for the extension of an invitation to her.

Concerning the German dues an arrangement has been made by which Germany in the future will pay the same scale as Canada, but Germany objects to the payment of her back subscriptions totaling about 600,000 Swiss francs. The British delegates are opposed to granting the German request for cancellation.

TWO COPS HURT IN GUN BATTLE WITH BANDITS

New York — Two policemen were wounded in a pistol battle with four robbers Tuesday after a daring hold-up in the Hotel Aberdeen in W. Thirty-second-st. just off Fifth-ave, from which the robbers escaped with cash and jewelry totalling several thousand dollars in value.

The policemen were shot when they attempted to prevent the escape of the robbers in an automobile. After they had been pursued for a mile through the streets of upper Manhattan, the robbers abandoned their bullet riddled car.

MICHIGAN SOLONS ASK CAL TO SUPPORT NAT'L GUARDS

By Associated Press

The resolution introduced by Senator August Gansser of Bay City, reviewed the history of the national guard. Copies were ordered sent to the president, the secretary of war and members of congress.

JUDGE HOPKINS WON'T LISTEN TO WITNESSES

Rules Persons Not Named in Affidavit Cannot Testify at New Hearing

Chicago — Judge Jacob Hopkins Tuesday refused to hear witnesses in support of William D. Shepherd's for a reconsideration of the question of his release on bail, because the witnesses were not named in the defense affidavit charging that the principal testimony against Shepherd had been "framed." Further hearing was continued until Thursday morning. The court gave Shepherd little encouragement in the bail matter and refused to transfer the hearing to another judge as asked by the defense after the court had refused to hear new witnesses not named in the defense affidavit.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS

State's attorneys were prepared to resist the announced detention of Shepherd's counsel to "blow the state's case sky high." This effort was expected to center around Mrs. Luella Rheubell, former assistant to Charles C. Fairman. Mrs. Rheubell asserts Fairman never had five grand juries at his school, defense attorney's have said. She was sought Monday by detectives after prosecutors issued a summons for her, but could not be found. At her apartment they found Miss Ethel Stuart who was questioned concerning certain documents which Mrs. Rheubell has said are important to the defense. A report that the bodies of Dr. Oscar Olson and Mrs. Emma McClintock exhumed for examination for possible poison traces gave evidence that heart disease was the possible cause of death was made Monday by Dr. John P. Simonds, Northwestern university pathologist, who attended the autopsies as Shepherd's representative. Dr. William D. McNally, coroner's chemist, who is continuing his investigation of the bodies recently made a preliminary report to the state effect.

Kills Russian Prisoners As An Act Of Patriotism

Warsaw.—The terrorists Baginski and Wlasczkiewicz whom the Polish government recently agreed to exchange for two Poles under sentence of death in soviet Russia were at once killed by Police Sergeant Kagan Murawski while on their way to the border for the exchange, according to information here. Murawski is quoted as declaring that he made the attack in revenge for atrocious treatment when he was a resident of Russia. The deed has strongly moved public opinion. Baginski and Wlasczkiewicz who formerly held commissions in the Polish army were sentenced to death last year on charges of implication in the Warsaw railroad explosion of October, 1923. Their sentences were commuted to life imprisonment by President Wojciechowski. The soviet minister had been instructed to protest vigorously to Poland concerning the assassination of Baginski and Wlasczkiewicz. The train bearing the two terrorists to the place of exchange was hoarding the soviet border when Murawski suddenly drew his revolver and fired several times. Baginski was instantly killed and his companion died within a short time. After the deed Murawski at once surrendered himself to the custody of other members of the police guard, exclaiming, "I have acted as a patriot. I have killed two traitors."

PLAN TO DEFER BILL IS SENT TO COMMITTEE

Assemblyman Warns That Close Vote Was Indication That Time Is Not Ripe

LINES DRAWN TIGHTLY

Eber Will Vote for Reconsideration for Sake of $25 Tax Offset Amendment

By Associated Press
Madison — Assemblyman Wallace Ingalls, Racine, failed Tuesday to obtain consideration this week of his resolution for an interim committee investigation of the state tax problems to report in 1927. After introducing the proposals, Mr. Ingalls moved that the rules be suspended to permit action on it Thursday. The motion failed and the resolution was referred to the revision committee.

The author told the assembly that the close margin by which the income tax bill was advanced showed that there was "a great and honest difference of opinion on this subject." He also cited the questions which had been settled by interim committees, including highway, insurance and banking problems.

"It would be impracticable for the legislature, or any committee thereof, to give so important a subject the consideration and attention its importance demands during the present session of the legislature," Mr. Ingalls said.

An intensive campaign was started Monday night among assemblymen by administration leaders to round up wavering votes for the bill. The movement was being directed by Senator A. E. Garey, administration senate floor leader, and Senator O. R. Johnson, chairman of the senate corporation and taxation committee. The indication is that the issue will be decided by but a few votes majority, at this time apparently in favor of the bill.

The lineup on the income tax question in preparation for final action Wednesday apparently was unchanged Tuesday, except that the position of John W. Eber, Milwaukee assemblyman, who was absent last Thursday, when the measure was ordered engrossed, was made known. Mr. Eber announced that he would vote for reconsideration in an effort to amend the bill to include his proposal for a $25 offset on income tax payments. If the attempt is unsuccessful, he would oppose the bill on the grounds that it is not a progressive step, he added.

The voting Wednesday will be close either way, leaders agree, with the assembly's action speculative. It has been suggested that the vote of Ernest F. Pahl, Milwaukee, would be a deciding factor. Proponents and opponents alike, however, said they were sure Assemblyman Pahl would vote for the bill as he has done thus far. Mr. Pahl was not reached for a statement.

LEADERS SILENT

Some defections from one side or the other have been forecast since the vote on engrossment, but leaders were silent on this.

Assemblyman Anton Holly, Kauwaunee, and C. S. Geraldson, Superior, are good friends, despite their argument over the income tax bill last Thursday night. They joined in making this announcement to arrest they said, any impression otherwise that may have been made by newspaper accounts of their heated controversy. They refuted the idea that they were about to come to blows over the bill. Nothing, they added, was further from their minds.

The assembly advanced the Mont bill creating a new board of examination for registration in the basic sciences. The measure would require all persons desiring to treat the sick to submit to an examination in what are termed basic sciences. The sponsors said the measure was designed to safeguard the public more thoroughly. Dentists and optometrists exempted from its provision by amendments.

TRY TO RECONCILE FRANCE, BRITAIN ON SECURITY PACT

Paris.—A security pact which includes the proviso that it shall become null and void unless Germany becomes a member of the League of Nations may overcome the difference between the French and British governments on the possibility of making a permanent arrangement before the league assembly meets in September. It was said Tuesday in official circles. There is much surprise over the British attitude on this point, at a time when the French government is coming around to the idea first broached from London, that Germany must be a member of the league.

EIGHT ALARMS KEEP FIREMEN ON JUMP

Grass and Roof Fires Break Out and Cause Series of Calls Monday and Tuesday

Eight fire alarms within 24 hours gave the fire department quite a spring workout Monday and Tuesday. Two of them were roof fires causing minor damages to residences and there were several grass fires and one blaze in rubbish.

The first alarm came at 7:15 Monday morning when rubbish in the city dump on W. Washington st. started to burn. Two grass fires then started, one at noon in the ravine east of N. Fox st. and another at 1:10 on Riverside.

Two runs were made about 1:30 to Calmes Corners, but found the fire at the John Thomas farm was out of reach of water supply. A second call gave the impression that there was a roof fire at Calmes Corners that had been missed so a second trip was made. The department found it could be of no help at the Thomas fire so returned to its station. The last trip of the day was at 4:10 to a third grass fire on Walter-ave.

The firemen no sooner had finished extinguishing a roof fire at the Charles Hart home, 301 N. State-st. at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning when they hurried to the home of Mrs. William Brill, 527 W. Prospect-ave. Several places on the Hart roof were on fire at once but the use of chemicals stopped their progress. Only a small portion of the roof was damaged, causing a loss of about $75.

Mrs. Brill's home started burning at 7:35. The flames had worked their way beneath the shingles and ignited a ceiling above a bedroom. Part of plaster fell on a bed and set fire to the bedding. The walls of the room also were damaged and the total loss was about $100.

Losses Long on Trial

The case of Cleon Lockwood, charged by his divorced wife with failure to provide for his two infant children was begun before Judge A. M. Spencer in municipal court at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He was bound over for trial when he appeared in municipal court last week and had been released on $500 bail.

REJECTS ORDER FOR 1000 CARS

Individuals Pay No More For One Dodge Brothers Car Than Corporations Pay for Hundreds.

"Here is an order, duly signed by the proper executives, for 1000 of your cars."

What salesman wouldn't gulp -- and grab? Retail orders for motor cars in lots of 1000 come to the average salesman about as often as ice peddlers visit the Eskimos. There are only a few in history.

Yet the incident referred to--about the signed order for 1000 cars--actually happened. And what makes it remarkable is the fact that the salesman turned it down.

C. H. Jennings, Dodge Brothers Dealer in New York City, throws some clarifying light on this puzzler. He says:

"This Dodge Brothers salesman had been working for several years on a large national account--a company that operates cars by the thousands, in every part of the country. The company was buying Dodge Brothers cars regularly, ten fifteen and twenty and more at a time. On several occasions the chief buyer had made the remark that 'if you fellows would only grant a discount, as others do, we might order in larger lots.'"

"The salesman, of course, pointed out the desirability of buying the 1000 cars anywhere, regardless of Dodge Brothers no-discount policy, but the executive declined to recede from his position. The latter then prepared what he afterwards referred to as his psychological coup. He knew that the salesman would be calling again so he had an imposing document drawn up calling for the delivery, at a specified date, of 1,000 Dodge Brothers Motor Cars of various types, at full list price--minus 10 per cent."

"When the salesman called, a few weeks later, the official simply handed him the order. 'That serious,' said the official. 'We need cars and we want Dodge Brothers cars, but you can't have the order unless you abide by its terms. You've got to give us the quantity discount.'"

"The salesman made the same answer that he had always made before, but out of deference to the customer and the exceptional size of the order, promised to take it up with the factory. The subject came before us when I was assistant general sales manager of Dodge Brothers," said Mr. Jennings, "and I distinctly remember how quickly it was settled. There wasn't a moment's quibbling."

"We want to do everything possible to retain this company's business and good will," said President F. J. Hayes, "but the policies laid down by John F. and Horace Dodge are still the policies of this institution. We charge only for the actual investment represented by the materials and labor that go to make up the car, plus a reasonable profit for manufacturing and dealer. There is no margin that permits us to sell at a discount."

"Mr. Hayes also pointed out that it would be entirely unfair to the individual buyer if he were asked to pay a higher price for his car just to make it possible for Dodge Brothers to attract large buyers through the quantity discount."

"What happened to the order for 1000 cars? It is still in the desk of the same official and he never fails to show it to any Dodge Brothers salesman who happens to call. But he is still buying Dodge Brothers cars--just as he bought before."

Hint Blaine May Drop Fight On Game Refuge

Madison -- Guarded hints dropped here and there Monday intimated that Gov. Blaine is abating his hostility to the upper Mississippi fish and game refuge. There were no positive statements from the governor's office but his close friends are giving out the impression that if a proper amendment can be devised, the governor will permit the bill to go through. Such an amendment is now being sought.

One of the men with whom the governor has conferred is Will H. Dig, president of the Isaac Walton League of America. Mr. Dig came to Madison Saturday and was escorted to the governor's office by Adj. Gen. Ralph Immel.

A Madison newspaper regarded as friendly to the governor said Monday that Mr. Dig felt it was not improper for him to say that "the conference had been a pleasant one." Mr. Dig said nothing further regarding the interview.

He filed in his official withdrawal at the city clerk's office, and thereby left Alderman Fosse the field to himself. These other candidates still get into the race.

Business reasons were named by Mr. Rachow in withdrawing from the contest. He said he would not have the time he would be expected to devote to city government, and therefore decided to make this announcement to allow the public to take whatever action it pleases.

TOWN-RURAL COMMITTEE MAKING CONTEST SURVEY

Practically all the material has been compiled for the survey which the town and rural relations committee of the better cities contest is making. Considerable of the data was turned in at a meeting of the committee Monday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms.

This committee is making one of the most interesting reports of any connected with the contest. Quite a number of suggestions will be forthcoming as to how Appleton can cooperate more closely with the surrounding rural community. The field appears to be a big one and the report will reveal just where the effort is needed.

BALLARD KNIFED BY STICKUP MAN, HE TELLS SHERIFF

State Treasury Agent Says He Was Attacked While on Way to LaFollette Home

Madison—Rough and tumble tactics learned in the northwoods of Wisconsin saved C. B. Ballard, state treasury agent, who was attacked by a stickup man as he was traversing the lonely road between Maple Bluff drive and the Robert M. La Follette homestead.

After the tussle was over with Mr. Ballard victorious a revolver of small caliber, a tan cap and a dirty handkerchief were found. The three articles are in the possession of Sheriff Joe Daggett who hopes to effect a capture through them.

The hold-up is the first to occur in Madison or Dane county since early last summer.

A BAD GREETING

Mr. Ballard, who resides at the La Follette home as custodian in the absence of the senator, alighted from the Lincoln bus and was walking up the tree lined drive to the homestead when he heard a rustling in the bushes. He shouted and was greeted by a young man who pounced out at him with the command "hold 'em up."

The state treasury agent complied. The bandit started rifling his pockets and obtained his wallet. When he grabbed hold of a gold watch which he treasured highly Mr. Ballard grasped the bandit holding the gun. The gun dropped and the stickup man began to grapple with his victim. As the pair scrambled on the ground Ballard got hold of the gun and attempted to shoot his assailant. One shot was fired but failed to hit as the bandit stepped into a ditch, turned his ankle and fell.

ATTACKS WITH KNIFE

The youth then came back at Mr. Ballard, according to the state agent's story, with a small pocket knife in his hand and attempted to stab him.

Mr. Ballard then began using his feet and the more shots. As bullets began passing about him the bandit decided it would be better to flee and dashed back into the brush and disappeared.

Exhausted from the strenuous half hour he had tussled with his assailant with his clothes but where the robber had attempted to knife him Mr. Ballard crawled on his hands and knees to the La Follette home.

He called Sheriff Daggett, and then fell, almost unconscious, to the floor.

Other members of the household made him comfortable until the arrival of the sheriff's force.

Sheriff Daggett, with two deputies, speeded to the scene, but the holdup man had received to great a head start.

SEARCH FOR MAN

The officers, after scouring the country around the scene of the attempted hold-up, hurried to the Monona railroad yards, as it was probable that the man would try to flee the town on an outgoing freight or passenger train.

A search through box cars, round house, and the entire vicinity failed to reveal the man. Sheriff Daggett, however, hunted until early in the morning, but no trace of the man's whereabouts were found.

Art Nelson, hired man at the La Follette farm declared that about 10 o'clock he had heard a noise near the barns but had seen no one. He said that he did not investigate because he thought Mr. Ballard had come home.

A check of men at the Psychiatric Institute revealed that one of the inmates is missing, and it is the opinion of Sheriff Daggett that the stickup man probably escaped from the institution.

TAKE BONE FROM LEG AND PUT IT IN MAN'S SPINE

Robert Kraus, Appleton, former signal man of the Chicago and Northwestern railway at Appleton junction is recovering from a serious operation in the Maywood, Ill. hospital, according to word received by friends and relatives here. Mr. Kraus has been suffering from spinal trouble since his discharge from the United States army after the World war, and after all other attempts at a cure had failed decided to submit to the operation. A bone taken from one of his legs was used to replace one in his spine, and, according to reports, the operation was successful.

Chance To Save $2,700 In Gas Tax

If every motorist in Outagamie county drives his automobile to the filling station Tuesday and fills the tank with gasoline, all the automobilists of the county will be ahead, collectively, about $2,700. Appleton motorists alone would save about $900.

That is the way one "Statistical Stephen" of Appleton's army of motorists has it "aggrieved out" how the gasoline tax of 2 cents a gallon will affect this community.

At the hour of midnight the machinery of the new law will be put in operation, and thereafter every purchaser of gasoline used for motoring purposes will be taxed at the rate of 2 cents a gallon.

One man who has an axe to grind with the state because the state hit him with both a weight tax and a gas tax, thinks it would be a good April Fool joke if all autoists of the county would line up at the stations on the day before April 1 and fill up their tanks so as to cheat the state out of that much tax.

The 1924 motorist's report lists 5,587 cars for the county and 2,363 for the city, but since the count was made on May 1, a more accurate count would be around 9,000 for the county and 3,000 for Appleton. If the average tank holds 15 gallons, and if every one were filled, the total supply of gasoline would be 135,000 gallons for the county and 45,000 gallons for the city. On the basis of 2 cents a gallon the motorists would save the sums previously mentioned.

CREATE NEW DIVISION OF SOO LINE RAILWAY

Owing to the steady increase of business during the past six months the Wisconsin and Peninsular division of the Soo line railway has been subdivided into two divisions. F. W. Curtis, former superintendent of the Wisconsin and Peninsular division will have but half of his former territory to supervise, and W. H. Corbett, former trainmaster, has been promoted to superintendent of the other new division.

That part of the old division with headquarters in Minneapolis will be known as the Twin Cities division and will be under the supervision of Curtis, while the other half will be supervised by Corbett with headquarters at Gladstone, Mich. Appleton will be in the Twin Cities division.

The changes are to go into effect on April 1.

STATE SOON WILL ADD GAME WARDENS TO STAFF

Green Bay—Wisconsin game warden staff will be again recruited to its full size in the latter part of April. It has been learned through Conservation Commissioner Elmer S. Hall.

Through economies made necessary by the state's attitude toward conservation it was necessary to release approximately twenty-five wardens from service in January. These men will be returned to duty at the opening of the trout season, however, if not before, it is declared.

For some time sportsmen of the state have been agitating an increase in the yearly appropriation allowed the conservation commission which will more nearly correspond to the revenues produced for the state by the commission. In this way, more game wardens could be secured and the laws enforced more strictly, it is said.

SEEK GOOD DETOUR AROUND ROAD WORK ON HIGHWAY 15

The "ribbon" and also a part of the "concrete" will be broken up on the ribbon concrete of Highway 15 at least for a part of the summer, for a 3 1/2-mile strip of road north of North Fond du Lac is to be replaced with a new pavement of the standard gauge and width.

This leaves motorists in a quandary as to how they are going to get to Fond du Lac on Highway 15 this year. Although culverts were built last year, it is expected that the widening project may last a long time.

Just where the detour will be is not known. It is possible to get to Fond du Lac by way of Highway 26, the Oshkosh-Waupun road, and east on Route 23 from Rosendale. It is believed, however, that the Fond du Lac highway commission will provide a more direct detour, probably to the west at Vandine and thence south to Route 23.

Kaminsky; sophomores—Gwendolyn Danke, Dorothy Draheim, Jeanette Edwards, Alice Getschow, Louise Hopfensperger, Gwendolyn Vandaworka and Frances Perrine freshmen—Edmund Bolton, Juanita Hansen, Charles Peerenboom, Arnold Sieg and Evelyn Stallman.

Colds Should Always Be Treated With Vapors

It has long been recognized that the most effective way to treat colds is to apply the medication directly to the affected parts. This of course can only be done by means of vapors that can be inhaled.

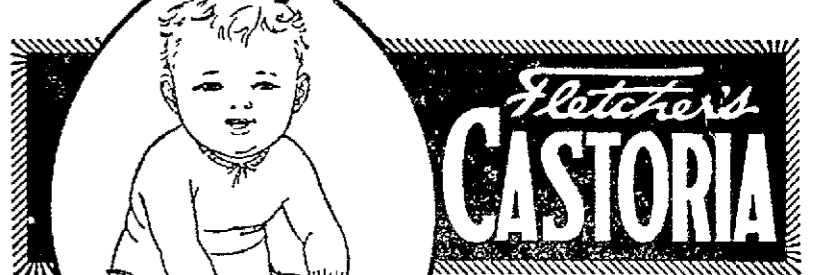

Vicks provides the ideal method of securing medicated vapors. When rubbed over throat and chest the ingredients—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine—are vaporized by the body heat and inhaled directly into the air passages and lungs.

At the same time, Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster, affording a double action which brings truly remarkable results.

THE GERMAN ELECTION

Germany has just held its first popular election for president. The results, while inconclusive and requiring apparently another election for the reason that the constitution requires a majority of the votes cast, nevertheless afford an interesting reflection of political and social conditions in that country. The candidate of the conservative bourgeoisie and the Nationalists, Dr. Jarres, received a substantial lead over his nearest opponent, but the Socialists have established themselves as the strongest single party. The republican element, composed of Socialists, Democrats and Centrists, really won a victory, because they have a combined majority, have much in common and are probably in a position to form a satisfactory coalition. The Nationalist-Conservative combination represent the reactionary and royalist sentiment, and its showing is not as formidable as was expected.

In recent months many stories have come from Germany of a strong tendency toward a return to monarchy. There have been some incidents here and there to substantiate this view, so that it would not have surprised many had the royalist movement been indorsed by a clear majority. General Ludendorff, who ran as an independent royalist, with a fascist program, made a dismal showing.

We think the election will be viewed with satisfaction in Europe for two reasons. It indicates, first, a very deep and emphatic repudiation of communism. In the second place, at the next election it is probable the liberals will be able to unite on a candidate and therefore elect a president. If this proves to be the case, the proposals which have been advanced by Germany for reaching a new and permanent understanding with France and Great Britain stand a good chance of being put through to ultimate adoption.

These negotiations are of the greatest importance, for they constitute for the first time a voluntary recognition on the part of Germany of the western frontiers as established by the peace treaty. They afford the basis of an understanding between the three nations which ought to insure peace, and which would make unnecessary some of the guarantees France has demanded from Germany and has sought from Great Britain.

The Republicans of Germany have manifested a consistent purpose to make the best of the results of the war, within reason, and to lay the foundations of lasting accord with Great Britain and France. This they have done in spite of tremendous opposition and conspiracy by the royalists and communists. Nothing worse for the peace of Europe and for the stable development of Germany could occur than a return to power in that country of the fourisms. We believe all of Europe, as well as the United States, will breathe easier now that it is finally assured that such a contingency cannot occur.

CURBING THE FOOL OF THE ROAD

There would be mighty few automobile accidents, in spite of the congestion on our streets and roads, if every automobile driver did exactly the right thing in the right place at the right time. The trouble is that they don't. The vast majority of accidents in Outagamie county, and everywhere else, result from careless, unthinking, reckless driving, and so long as drivers continue to be careless and reckless there will be collisions and casualties. Obviously the remedy lies in making drivers more careful.

The tremendous increase in the number of cars on the road this year no doubt will result in proportionate increase in the number of wrecks and casualties, unless there is a change in the ways of drivers. Already this year two men have died in Outagamie county from injuries received in automobile accidents, and the driving season has hardly started. The prospect for pleasant motoring is dismal indeed.

"Consider every driver you meet as a fool, and act accordingly," probably is the best advice ever offered the motoring public. If it were generally followed there would be a sharp decrease in the number of accidents, for every driver would be careful to avoid contact with the "fool" ahead or behind. Careful driving, not by a few, but by every one, is the one way to prevent accidents and until this is accepted as an axiom, there will be no decrease in casualties.

Safe drivers clubs and kindred organizations are all right in their place, but they are not inclusive enough to be of real service. Their weakness is that they do not reach the real reckless driver, the man who has no respect for the rights and properties of others, the real fool of the road. That type of man isn't interested in safe drivers' clubs. But he is the man who must be reached and until a way is found to reach him, motoring will be much more of a worry than a pleasure for most of us.

STUDY MUSCLE SHOALS

The president has appointed a commission to study the Muscle Shoals problem. The commission has been created entirely outside of congress and outside of the administration. Contrary to expectations no cabinet members were placed on it. It is composed of scientific and practical men, including a representative of the American Farm Bureau federation.

This is undoubtedly the right course to pursue with reference to Muscle Shoals. The country, and no doubt the president, have despaired of a sound disposition of Muscle Shoals by congress. So much politics has been injected into the various proposals, and such strong prejudices exist, as to make intelligent and impartial action almost impossible.

The president's commission is going to investigate the subject with the sole purpose of determining what is best for the national interests in the future use and development of Muscle Shoals. It will have time to make its investigation and report to the next session of congress. It is likely its conclusions will be well fortified by facts, and that they will offer the best practical solution of this problem. If the commission is united in its recommendations it is likely the country will approve them, no matter what congress may think, and congress will in the end respond to public opinion.

CHEESE FOR ACIDOSIS.
Until here just the other day Ilimburger cheese had always been a mere hypothetical question to me. So far as my own senses were concerned there was no such thing, though I believed Ilimburger cheese existed. And my lack of faith in the folk tales and legends about it was fully justified when I found a package of it knocking about the grocer's counter all sealed with paraffin paper and foil. I was a little disappointed with the personality of the cheese. It seemed utterly drab and neutral in character, but I credited that to the infancy of the cheese—it was just a 19 cent or trial size package apparently intended for experimental purposes. Tenderly I carried it home in my vest pocket. Little I recked how brave that was. About a week later, along toward 2 o'clock one morning I put down the body in the blue room to inventory the commissary department, and there was the dainty little package of Ilimburger, waiting patiently to be spread on some biscuits. I unwrapped the package, and immediately apprehended that it was a condition which confronted us and not a theory. This opinion was fully sustained by the unanimous verdict of the household that morning, and several subsequent ballots confirmed the primary verdict. Although excluded from the voting, I reserve the right to make a minority report, and my judgment is that Ilimburger cheese makes a pleasant and proper spread for bread, biscuit or crackers.

Cheese is perhaps the richest source of phosphorus in our dietary. It is superior to any alleged "nerve tonic" or any organic phosphorus in the form of medicine, as a source of phosphorus for the human system. Phosphorus has little to do with the nervous system, however; less than 1 per cent of all the phosphorus in the body is contained in the brain nerves. All these wonderful hypophosphites, glycerophosphates and other phosphorus combinations are just appeasance—nay, a teaspoonful of appeasance contains more phosphorus for the body.

The phosphorus compounds in the body, particularly the phosphates in the blood and protoplasm of other tissues, enable the blood and tissues to remain neutral of faintly alkaline in spite of constant production of acid products of metabolism.

Cheese, any kind of great value, therefore, in the diet of one with a tendency toward acidosis. Acidosis is a state in which the neutrality of health is lost and an excess of acid products of metabolism is formed or retained in the blood and the tissues. It has nothing to do with real or imagined "acidity" of the stomach. It has nothing to do with the question of eating acid fruits or vegetables—the liberal use of acid fruits and vegetables opposes and tendency toward acidosis, as a rule. Acidosis is a feature in many disease conditions. The principal acid substance concerned in acidosis is carbon dioxide, the gas given off by the lungs.

Cheese is too often avoided by ill informed folk who imagine it is "indigestible" or "constipating." It is neither. There is no food substance more easily or readily digested than cheese. There is no food which constipates. Cheese being so completely digested leaves little residue in the intestine, and is therefore less laxative than some other foods, but it is not in any sense binding.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Can Anybody Diagnose This Case?

Dear Doctor:
I have observed that—
When their minds are getting shady and their wits are straying maybe, then they face you, Dr. Brady, for a scrap. But I'm telling you in rhyme, sir, I have never seen the time, sir, that I didn't get a kick from your comeback. I have never caught a "cold" by facing blizzards, or been sold by coming out without my rubbers in the rain. But I have caught some damned thing, sir, that my best friend caused in, sir. Then your good suggestions put me on the rain. Peggie balk and turn the heat on. 'Tis a good way to keep sweat on King Disease and all his allies lurking near. If they'd can the scrap and listen not so many would be misin' from their old accustomed places every year. (Mrs. D. B.)

Answer—Natural—I sympathize with you and hope you will find a good way out in time. Try to restrain the spells when they break out too often and if you are unable to do so through will power, consult a competent theanaut.

Answer—No. They're comparatively harmless. (Copyright, National Newspaper Service)

Europe Gets Loans Only For Peace

BY FREDERICK J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C.—The four years which concluded on March 4, 1925, were filled with important developments in American foreign relations. But the story of one of the most significant and far-reaching of these developments has never been told adequately and only in the vaguest kind of way have intimations of it reached the public that it affects.

Now that Charles Evans Hughes has vacated the post of head of the department of state it is perhaps timely to call attention to a policy formulated, launched and established during his regime. For it was under Mr. Hughes' guidance and largely under his inspiration that the department for the first time assumed the role of a great international financial agency.

During the post-armistice period there was a great demand for American private capital in Europe. At the same time there was serious danger that this money secured in the United States and including the savings of the American people, might be used for purposes at variance with the policies of the United States government. It therefore became necessary for the government to develop some method to safeguard against private capital's being used for unproductive purposes and for purposes that might have in them the seeds of future wars. No phase of American policy has proved more successful, it is claimed.

ISSUED MANIFESTO

In the summer of 1921 President Harding called a group of bankers in to conference at the White House. The situation as to foreign loans was talked over and on March 3, 1922, the department of state issued a manifesto entitled "Flotation of Foreign Loans," which laid the foundation of the new policy.

It set forth that "in view of the possible national interests involved," the department attached great importance to these flotation and it was suggested that American bankers should adequately inform the department of contemplated loan transactions in order to afford an opportunity to pass on their bearing public policies and national interests.

There was nothing legal or binding about the formula. But it has worked. The department assumed no responsibility whatever in connection with the loans as investments and maintained a position of absolute impartiality as between competing American interests. What it undertook to do was simply to give its judgment as to the advisability of certain loans after a full consideration of conditions in the foreign field into which the investment was to go and the purpose to which it was to be applied.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS LOANED

In the period that has elapsed since the policy was formulated hundreds of millions of dollars of American money has gone abroad but with this difference: namely, that whereas in past decades such money might be used to foster a revolution or to prepare for war, the American investor in a foreign loan is now assured that his money is applied to productive and peaceful purposes.

As a result of the practice of submitting proposed loans to the department of state we are able to tell from day to day what Europe is doing with our money. It was largely due to the closing of the American purse strings that the great powers were finally compelled to settle the tangled reparations problem and to take it definitely out of political backwash and cross currents of the World war. Then and only then did American private capital start going abroad afresh. But for the policy developed by Mr. Hughes it would have gone in dribbles here and there and it is said that a final settlement of the reparations question would in all probability have been postponed.

When the question of private loans became acute and the demand insistent the state department took the position that loans to foreign governments constituted transactions of a special character. Their effect upon the political and economic relations between the United States and the borrowing country may be far-reaching.

For instance, one country might become acute and the demand insistent the state department took the position that loans to foreign governments constituted transactions of a special character. Their effect upon the political and economic relations between the United States and the borrowing country may be far-reaching.

Then again, it is entirely possible under a policy of "let alone" that American interests might propose arrangements involving the possibility of economic exploitation and which would be likely to prejudice good relations between the United States and a particular country. To avoid this as important as it is to prevent American money's being used for the building of armaments.

How important it is for this government to exercise some kind of jurisdiction over American investments abroad will be seen from a glance at the investment figures as they stand today. In 1914 the United States was a debtor nation to the extent of $2,000,000,000. Now this country is the chief reservoir of capital, while capital is a fundamental factor in international relations. The United States is now a creditor to the extent of $20,000,000,000 of which approximately $12,000,000,000 is the amount owed by foreign governments to the American government. Not including this latter sum American investments abroad are estimated in excess of $8,000,000,000, while the total foreign capital in this country is only $3,000,000,000, thus leaving a net amount of more than $5,000,000,000 for which American nationals are creditors with respect to foreign nations.

The Question Box

(Any reader can get the answer to any question by writing The Appleton Post-Crescent Information Bureau, Frederick J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C. This offer applies strictly to information. The Bureau cannot give advice on legal, medical, and financial matters. It does not attempt to settle domestic troubles, nor to undertake exhaustive research in any subject. Give your question plainly and briefly. Give full name and address and enclose two cents in stamps for return postage. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.)

Q. Is there a blue robin? E. B. L.
A. There is no such bird as a blue robin. The robin and the bluebird belong to the same family of thrushes and are somewhat alike in appearance.

Q. Are black cats considered good luck or bad luck? L. M. P.
A. A black cat running across the path in some countries is considered a bad and in others a good omen. This superstition probably had its origin in the fact that black cats are in mythology inseparably associated with witches, who had the power to bring either good luck or misfortune.

Q. What country has the largest population and what one the smallest? J. G.
A. China, including her dependencies, has the largest population, 275,000,000. Andorra has the smallest population, 5,231.

Q. What is the most expensive church in the United States? J. A. D.
A. The Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City when completed will probably be the most costly church building in America. In its present unfinished condition it represents an outlay of $5,311,533. The estimated total cost is to be approximately $20,000,000.

Q. What is the leader of pack animals called? L. M. S.
A. In the United States the lead animal is usually called a bell mare, bell mule, lead mare, or lead horse.

Q. What makes the finger nails ridged? D. B.
A. Furrows of the nails are sometimes caused by a local disease which can only be prescribed for by a physician. If these ridges grow toward the end of the nail, they may be eventually removed by the trimming process. If they are longitudinal they can not be removed by this method, but only be improved by thorough polishing.

Q. What is meant by a churchman in the Episcopal Church? G. G.
A. The name "churchman" is applicable only to those who are actually members of the church and not to members of the congregation.

LETTER FROM RUTH BURKE TO LESLIE BRESCOTT.

Leslie, I was too amazed at this turn of events to speak, but the girl knew I was interested. "Harry was always good to me, Mrs. Luke," she continued. "He kept me in school in Geneva from the time my mother died when I was three years old until last year when I was graduated. He came a few days after that looking ill and unhappy and took me away."

"We went over to the Italian lakes but it was not the right climate for Harry's heart. He grew more and more unhappy as he found that he was steadily growing weaker and gave me a letter for you. It was then he told me that you were the kindest and tenderest and most loyal woman in the world. It was then he told me you had been his wife."

"Zoe," he said, "I am not going to be with you long. I have very little money left. I was in hope I would be well soon to earn some more. However, I think there is enough to keep you until you get something to do."

"You can do something to earn your living?" he asked pathetically. "I had no idea, Mrs. Burke, of what I could do. I had not been trained for anything except to do those little things that a girl must do for herself but I answered 'yes' very decidedly that I could be a governess."

"Well, dear, if I were you I would go back to Paris and get a place as governess in some American family and save as I am able."

"At this I burst into tears and he, trying to comfort me, said, 'Don't cry. Honest, I'm ready to go. I've made an awful mess of it and I'm tired. I'm sure you will be more successful without me than with me. You speak French and Italian and surely your education is of the best.' He was silent for a while. It was a great effort for him to breathe. Then he handed me this letter saying, 'If you get into any trouble try and see the dear woman to whom it is addressed. Don't attempt to mail it. The letter will keep years if necessary. Time will only have left the best of me among Ruth's memories. You may never have to deliver it, but if necessary take it and Ruth will advise and help you.'"

The girl handed me the letter. I didn't read it then and the girl proceeded to tell me the rest of her story.

"Harry died that night. As soon as possible I went to Paris and very soon got a position in the family of Leonard Stores as nursery governess for their only child, a tiny girl of three."

From the first I could see that Mr. and Mrs. Stores were very unhappy. Their only bond was Stella, whom they both loved almost to idolatry. "At first I saw very little of Mr. Stores but after a time he formed the habit of coming into the nursery and watching his little daughter for an hour or two every morning."

"He seldom played with her but Stella adored him and was continually asking him questions and was always trying to bring him into our work or play. He, however, paid no attention to me whatever" (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc)

KAUKAUNA SHOWS GREAT INTEREST IN STATE DEBATE
SLOW PROGRESS ON BRIDGE ABUTMENT

High School in Championship Finals in First Year of Competition

Kaukauna—The Electric City is showing a great deal of interest in the debating contest in the auditorium Friday evening when the crack Kaukauna high school teams will meet Chippewa Falls and Fort Atkinson for state championship honors. The local affirmative team will travel to Fort Atkinson while the local negative trio will meet Chippewa Falls here. Plans are under way for a program to precede the contest.

Members of the faculty who have been training the debaters are optimistic over the coming event. The negative team eliminated Wausau last week and that city was considered the favorite of the state.

This is the first debate team in the history of the school and the results thus far have been gratifying to the citizens as well as the teachers. To survive in the race up to this point has meant weeks of constant practice and diligent research.

A large map of the state with arrows pointing out the competing schools has been placed in the lower corridor where students cannot fail to see it on their way to and from classes. The map serves the double purpose of continually reminding the students of Friday's contest and of revealing to them the honor already won for the school by the two teams.

Mary Astor and Clive Brook in "Enticement" MONDAY AND TUESDAY AT THE ELITE THEATRE

great love she once bore her husband, is dead and in its place a great love for the man who has done so much for her.

Mary Astor, Ian Keith and Clive Brook.

"Enticement" is unusual in that, while it is a story of love, it does not follow the usual formula and bring the "love at first sight" romance to a happy ending. Instead, it tends to show that many young girls do not know what real love is when that emotion first stirs their hearts, and that they allow themselves to be led into other paths, thereby sacrificing their lives on the altar of cold reason.

In this instance, the girl was frightened by the advent of love, and found out too late that she had made a mistake.

See Hope For Tax Cut In Special Congress Meeting

BY CHARLES F. STEWART

Washington—When told there was to be an extra session of Congress, beginning early in the fall, the country probably would have groaned, but for one thing—it is to make another 25 per cent cut in the income tax rate. Members of the Senate got the tip from the White House, just as they were leaving for home, after adjournment March 18, that the extra call will be issued, that it will be for some time in September and that tax reduction will be the program. Of course the president may be unable to prevent it. "I am sure from taking up other matters also, but there need be no worry lest they fail to lower the income tax. They know too well which side their political bread is buttered on, to try to defy him on any such proposition.

That there will be a decided disagreement on the nature of the cut is extremely likely, however. Secretary of the Treasury Mellon still wants surtaxes reduced. This, if he gets his way, will mean more relief for big taxpayers and correspondingly less for the smaller fry. Twenty-five per cent represents simply a total How it's divided up is a different thing.

OPINION WILL DIFFER Secretary Mellon's idea of the right method of dividing it is sure to meet with opposition from congressmen who realize that a poor man's vote counts as much as a rich man's, besides being far more numerous. Politicians differ as to the means by which the administration is managing to bring income taxation down. Chairman William R. Green of the House Ways and Means Committee gives the credit to economical governmental management. Representative Joseph Byrne of the House Appropriations Committee, who takes the Democratic view, maintains that current governmental expenses are increasing rather than being reduced.

Green, the treasury, which it was estimated would have a surplus of $69,000,000 June 30, 1925, will have a surplus of about $100,000,000 instead.

On June 30, 1926, he estimates it will have $300,000,000. The treasury itself estimates, more hopefully, that it will have $373,000,000.

Since the fiscal year 1926 hasn't even begun, however, this is a long time to look ahead.

SAY COSTS WILL RISE Without conceding that current expenses are increasing now, Representative Martin B. Madden, who is a Republican and chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House, says that "what they'll do, if anything, henceforward for some time, because all the departments are down to the very bone already and some of them will have to have additional allowances before long or their efficiency will decline. Anyway," says Representative

Burton King, who is one of the screen's most successful directors, has added another feather to his cap of screen hit in his latest production, "The Truth About Women," which comes to the New Bijou Wednesday and Thursday. In this picture he tells a modern story of love and romance in which four characters take a leading part. Director King has done himself proud. Some of the big scenes are staged lavishly and artistically, with the leads, played by Hope Hampton, Lowell Sherman, Mary Thurman and David Powell, enacting their roles admirably.

It is a big American story, the story of a woman's love and devotion to her husband and daughter, and a sudden change of heart by the husband with the wife finally realizing that another woman has taken her place in her husband's heart. The wife disappears only to reappear later as a cabaret sensation, with her beauty and talent again attracting her husband. However the man and true friend, who made possible her new lease on life, is madly in love with her and she finds the old love, the

More people use electricity, in more different ways, every year. It is the fastest growing industry in America, and its growth is permanent. Modern electric power plants, serving large populations, have to be enlarged every year, to meet increased demand for their product. We are selling a $500,000 issue of Wisconsin Electric Power Co. 6½% cumulative preferred shares to finish paying for plant additions during 1925. The shares cost $100 each. While the issue lasts—and it will be sold out within the next 30 days—you can buy any number of shares from one to 100, paying all cash or $5 monthly per share. Either way, EVERY DOLLAR INVESTED EARNS 6½% FROM THE DAY IT COMES INTO THE BUSINESS. This is a super-safe permanent income investment for savings. In case of need, original buyers of these shares can always have them resold on short notice, through our offices, at their cost price, less $1 resale charge.

And Harry Oaks Agrees Also To Be Honest Man

Mr. Harry Oaks, who has spent a number of years on the stage, as a professional actor, will play Mr. Ralston, the leading male role in "Nothing But The Truth," which is to be presented at Fiscner's Appleton theatre on Monday, April 6, under the auspices of the John F. Rose chapter of De Molay. Bob Bonini, who was originally cast for the role, suffered an attack of appendicitis and was rushed to St. Elizabeth hospital on Friday night. Mr. Oaks nobly rose to the occasion and agreed to play the part.

It's nothing but the truth when we say that this play is on the cleverest ever put on by a group of amateur performers. Miss Dorothy Adst, as Gwendolyn Ralston, is the perfect type of modern girl. She knows nothing about business herself, yet she believes that Eugene Cole, as Robert Bennett, her fiance, has absolute power over Wall street. In order that she will not be disillusioned, and that he may be able to claim her for his own, young Bennett agrees to tell the unadulterated truth for twenty-four hours. What happens during these twenty-four hours will furnish the audience with many a whole-hearted laugh.

All the members of the cast have appeared on the stage before in one role or another, most of them under the direction of Miss Ruth McKenna who is also coaching this play. Those who are taking part in the production are Katherine Pratt, as Etel Clark, a young society snob. Miss Pratt took part in "What Happened To Jones," the junior class play of the class of 1923, and was leading lady in "A Pair of Sixes" the senior class play. She is also well known as a reader.

Mrs. John Engle Jr., who plays Mrs. Ralston, opposite Harry Oaks, is probably one of the most prominent readers in Appleton, and is also well known in amateur theatricals.

John Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Powell, plays the part of Dick Donnelly, a happy-go-lucky young broker. Mr. Powell was the leading man in "A Successful Calamity" this year's Junior class play.

Richard Tuttrup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tuttrup plays Clarence Vandusen, a customer and friend of Ralston's. Mr. Tuttrup is well known in High School dramatics.

Other prominent members of the cast are Helena Koletzke, Majorie Davis and Louise Thompson all of whom have played before in High school class plays.

Civil Appel is general chairman of the production staff. Other members of the staff are F. John Harriman, Maurice Lewis, and Henry Johnson.

The whole order is behind the play and are trying to make a rousing success.

The tickets are on reserve Thursday morning, April 2, at Bellings drug store. Get yours early from any DeMolay and be in your seat at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening, ready for the most laughs you ever crowded into one evening.

TEST LEGALITY OF RULING ON PAYMENT TO BADGER INDIANS

DePere Man Starts Test Suit to Get Share of Menominee Log Fund Money

A test case brought in the name of Alexander Besaw, De Pere, to determine whether Menominee Indians of mixed blood are entitled to per capita payments from the Menominee Log fund in the United States treasury on the same basis as the Menominees residing on the reservation, will be argued in the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, in April, according to Denison Wheelock, De Pere, counsel for several hundred Indians living in this territory.

Alexander Besaw is one of the many Menominee Indians in this territory who has been prevented receiving per capita payments from the department of Indian affairs because he did not live on the reservation but chose rather to accept the life of the white man. He is a veteran of the Civil war.

There are between 400 and 500 Menominee Indians and Menominees of mixed blood living between Kaukauna and Menominee, Mich., on the territory originally occupied by the Menominee tribes, according to Mr. Wheelock.

The log fund consists of money acquired from cutting timber on the reservation near Shawano. One-fifth of it is spent by the secretary of the interior for Indian welfare and four-fifths is funded and the interest is spent for Indians or paid to them on a per capita basis. The fund has grown to $3,000,000. One of the rules is that only those born on the reservation are entitled to pay.

The Besaw case is a test to determine whether the secretary of the interior has any right to discriminate against Menominee Indians who have the same rights as the other members and the same blood except that they were born off the reservation, or have accepted the white man's way of living.

U. S. SEEKS LAWYERS FOR CIVIL SERVICE POSITIONS

Lawyers will have a chance to try for civil service positions with the interstate commerce commission next month when examinations will be held for attorneys and examiners for all grades of positions requiring legal training and experience, according to an announcement from Washington. Their duties will be to complete the valuation of railroad property authorized by congress.

Lawyers with experience acquired in litigation involving the regulation of common carriers or other public utilities especially are desired by the interstate commerce commission. Receipt of applications will close on April 21 for some of the positions and on April 25 for others.

Because the number of candidates for appointments as teachers in the Indian service was insufficient in the recent examinations, these examinations will be held again, and applications will close on April 8. The positions to be filled by these examinations are those of elementary teacher (grades 1 to 6), junior high school teacher (grades 7 to 9) and senior high school teacher (grades 10 to 12). Information regarding this examination may be had on application to Herman J. Franck, secretary of the United States Civil Service board at the postoffice here.

Fellowship Of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible readings prepared for Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The Good Father

Read Lk. 15: 11-31 Text: 15: 22, 24. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost and is found.

MEDITATION—The father yearned with a great longing for his wandering son. He knew, however, that it was useless to compel him to return. He must wait patiently until his son realized for himself his need of his father's forgiveness and affection. The father's abiding love is shown by this, that he restrained himself and endured the pain of his son's absence and sin. He did not resort to authority. But when the son returned, how the Father's heart rejoiced! He only waited for evidence of his son's love and repentance.

"The beauty of the story is that his father met him far out on the homeward road, kissed him, blessed him again, clothed him, loved back into health and worthy occupation." PRAYER—Gracious Father, we pray for all those who are away from thee. Bless those in far away lands who seek to reveal thy Father's heart to thy children of many races. Help us to surrender our wills to thee. May our lives be cleansed from all defilement. Purify our hearts, in Jesus' name, Amen. (Copyright, 1925—P. L. Magley.)

STATE EMPLOYEES MUST PAY TAX ON GASOLINE

Madison.—The state of Wisconsin must pay the new gasoline tax to itself when it uses the fuel, but the payment will be made a transfer of money from one of the public pockets to another, attorney General Ekern informed State Treasurer Solomon Levitan today.

State officers and employs operating motor vehicles on highways in the state service are not exempt from payment of the motor fuel tax, which becomes effective Wednesday, the opinion held.

"At first blush," said the opinion, written by Franklin E. Rump, assistant attorney general, "it may seem strange that the state should pay the tax to itself for the privilege of using the highways of the state in state business, but doubtless the legislature considered that to provide for the administration of exemption free or refunds of the tax for fuel used by vehicles in state service be very cumbersome and expensive and might open the door to fraud or expansion of the tax."

"There is in fact no real or permanent loss to the public by reason of the tax paid being included in the state expense since the tax is paid into the state treasury and merely results in a transfer from one to another of the public pockets," it added.

U. S. COMMEMORATES LEXINGTON AND CONCORD

To mark the hundred fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Lexington and Concord, the first decisive battle in the war of independence, the United States Postoffice department will issue commemorative stamps in 1, 2, and 5 cent denominations. The stamps will be offered for sale in the Washington postoffice on April 4, and at the same time in Lexington and Concord.

The 1-cent stamps will bear a picture representing the Washington taking over the command of the American forces at Cambridge, and will be rectangular in form, and green in color. The 2-cent stamp represents the birth of liberty. It is red and shows the battle of Lexington and Concord. The 5-cent stamp bears a picture of a minute man in blue, under which is the following inscription: "By the rude bridge that arched the flood their flag to April's breeze unfurled, there once the embattled farmers stood and fired the shot heard round the world."

WELL ONE DAY IN BED THREE

That Was the Life of Mrs. Hollister Until she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyandotte, Michigan. — "After my baby was born I did not for six months and could hardly take care of my own baby. I always had a pain in my right side and it was so bad I was getting round shoulders. I would feel well one day and then feel so bad for three or four days that I would be in bed.

One Sunday my mother came to see how I was, and she said a friend told her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So the next day I got a bottle and before it was half taken I got relief. After I was well again I went to the doctor and he asked me how I was getting along. I told him I was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and he said it did not hurt any one to take it. I am always recommending the Vegetable Compound to others and I always have a bottle of it on hand." — Mrs. HENRY HOLLISTER, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 7, Wyandotte, Mich.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for women. For sale by druggists everywhere.

STREET CLEANER WILL TAKE AWAY JOBS OF 20 MEN

City Will Dispense With White Wings When New Machine Starts Operating

Twenty white-wings in Appleton probably will lose their jobs as soon as the new street cleaning machine ordered by the city council begins to operate. At present about 25 men are employed by the city to keep the streets clean, but the new motorized sweeper will do the work of at least 20 of these. Nevertheless it will be necessary to keep several of them on the city payroll to clean the gutters, catchbasins, spaces between parked cars and nooks and crannies too small to permit passage of the new machine.

The street cleaner is built by the Elgin Manufacturing Co. It is run by a gasoline motor and combines the functions of a sprinkler, sweeper and "squeegee," or revolving rubber scraper. The brushes and other parts of the machine that come into contact with the road surface and do the actual cleaning are approximately six feet wide. The machine is equipped with electric lights to permit its operation at night, or before dawn.

The contract agreed to by the city council and the manufacturing company provides that the company shall furnish an instructor who will remain in Appleton for several days to show the men of the street department how to manage the machine.

HUNDREDS GIVEN HELP BY NEENAH RED CROSS BRANCH

Annual Report Lists Activities of Society for Year Ending March 24

Neenah—The Neenah chapter of the American Red Cross, which held its annual meeting last week and elected officers, has prepared its annual report. The treasurer's report shows that on Jan. 1, 1924 there was a balance of $1,006.25 in the treasury. Memberships, Christmas basket donations, contributions for Home Service and payment of loans made ex-service men swelled the amount to $2,585.62 for the year.

From this amount $1,627.62 was used for maintaining the office, payment of salaries, home service near east relief and the expenses of getting out the annual Christmas baskets, leaving a balance at the end of the year of $958.00.

The report up to date of the regular meeting, March 24, 1925, included membership fees, contributions for home service and the tornado relief fund, making a total of $1,093.80. The rents, salaries, telephone and other expenses up to March 24, caused disbursements of $673.12, which left a balance on March 24, 1925 of $415.68.

The Junior Red Cross has a balance of $21.67. The contributions from ward schools during the year totaled $40.71. Special contributions were received during the year from St. Thomas school and St. Patrick school, amounting to $66 which were turned over to the treasurer.

HYSTERIA BREAKS OUT FRESH ON WHEAT MART

Chicago—Selling hysteria broke out afresh in the wheat market Tuesday and within an hour after trading began had forced prices down 6 1/2 cents a bushel. May delivery of wheat fell to 1 1/4, the lowest point in many months.

Selling from European sources which suddenly dropped out in the wheat market there was associated with reports which were current that financial trouble in European continental countries was tearing so violent and rapid did price changes here be come that news tickers and quotation blackboards failed to keep any where near the actual trading figures in the wheat pit. At 1 1/4 for the May delivery of wheat, however, demand broadened, and rallies of 2 cents a bushel ensued.

HOLD UP RAISE IN FREIGHT RATES ON CANNED ARTICLES

Washington, D. Illustrating the increase proposed, the commission said the charge per hundred pounds on canned goods moving from St. Croix, Wis., to New York would have been advanced from 65 to 73 1/2 while from Fond du Lac, Wis., to New York the new rate would have been 67 1/2 cents as compared with 60 cents at present.

TWIN CITIES ORDERED TO REPLACE OLD BRIDGE

Maine—The secretary of war has served formal notice on the cities of Mainette and Menominee demanding that they replace the draw span of the lower bridge within the next four years. The notice, a surprise to both cities, is the result of a hearing held on Dec. 16 in Menominee. The new draw span must be built to eliminate the central pier and make a single channel, a passage of not less than 100 feet.

The matter will be put up to the city councils immediately by the mayors. Consternation prevailed for a time after the ultimatum was presented.

AMUNDSON TO HOLD SERVICE DAYS IN 7 LOCALITIES

INFORMAL CONFABS TO TAKE PLACE OF FARM INSTITUTES

Offers Help in Agricultural Problems and Free Distribution of Material

For the convenience of farmers living in districts of Outagamie co where no farm institutes or meetings have been held for some time, R. A. Amundson, county agricultural agent, will conduct a series of conferences in various town and villages starting on Wednesday. The conferences are known as "service days" and are not meetings, according to Mr. Amundson.

The service comes under the co-operative extension work in agriculture and home economics of the state of Wisconsin of which five leading groups are members. They are the College of Agriculture of the University of Wisconsin, the United States department of agriculture, the county board of supervisors, the agricultural extension service and the county agricultural representative work.

The meetings will be held as follows: April 1, Bank of Hortonville, Hortonville; April 2, Freeman's hall, Dale; April 3, State Bank, Freedom; April 4, Evening Shoppers association meeting, Center Valley; April 5, Morgan's store, Oneida; April 6, Lonkey's store, Shiloh; April 7, (evening) meeting of Shipping association, Apple Creek.

All the service finally given at farm institutes will be given by the county agent at these centers. Farmers are, for instance, invited to bring in samples of soil for testing. This will be valuable especially in ascertaining the adaptability of soil for alfalfa. In addition Mr. Amundson will have on hand a quantity of inoculation material for alfalfa clover, vetch etc. Farmers are welcome to bring their alfalfa problems to Mr. Amundson for personal discussion. Treatment for cabbage seed against rot and other cabbage diseases will be given free.

Help on drainage matters also is offered. Surveys for any kind of ditching thing and the like may be had for the asking. Farmers are invited to talk over their drainage problems with Mr. Amundson for this purpose. They may also consult him on any farm problem.

The service is still a quantity of war explosives available for blasting stones and stumps. Orders can be filled at the price of $7.50 per hundred pounds. Among the other forms of service is free distribution of building plans, soil maps and bulletins. Fine plans of barns, hen houses, hog houses, ventilating systems, maps showing the 1917 soil survey of Outagamie co and bulletins on spraying drainage, alfalfa growing, sweet clover, mineral feeds, cabbage diseases, poultry raising, marketing, and other subjects will be available.

SOUTHERN FARMER TURNS TO POULTRY

Raleigh, N. C. The southern cotton farmer discouraged by the boll weevil, has turned to raising poultry. That is one of the innovations noted where formerly cotton was practically the only crop and source of profit. Now, besides poultry, there's more dairying and rotation of crops is gaining greater headway. Poultry raising made its debut in the south through the encouragement of the railroads. Now a regular system for marketing poultry along the Atlantic coast has been formulated. It is called the system of co-operative car lots.

The railroads' development agent canvasses a district on the amount of poultry available for sale. He supplies a car at a central point to which the farmers bring their poultry. The farmer is paid on the basis of the highest bid offered by prospective buyers who also have been canvassed by the railroad's agents.

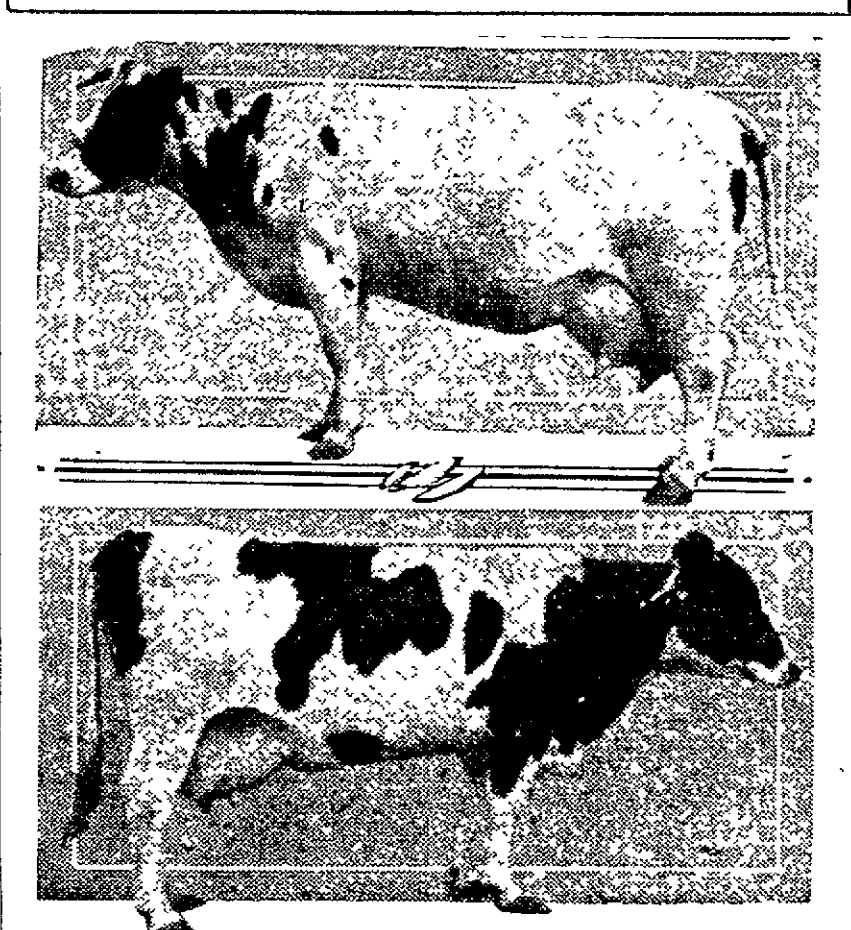

When the car gets its supply from one district it is moved on to another, until it is loaded. Then it goes to the buyer. The farmers are paid as they deliver their poultry.

SEED INOCULATION WILL START SOON

The inoculation of alfalfa which is conducted each year through the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, will be started in Outagamie co in the near future, according to R. A. Amundson, county agricultural agent. The seeds of the alfalfa are inoculated in order to speed the growth and give the crop a healthy stand. The inoculation fluid may be obtained direct from the college of agriculture, through banks and through Mr. Amundson. Last year Mr. Amundson alone distributed enough to sow 2,500 acres. The seed may be secured any time now and will be available all through the planting season.

Enjoying the South John L. Hettlinger and J. Austin Hawes, former mayor of Appleton, are enjoying their stay at St. Petersburg, Fla., according to letters and postal cards received by their friends here. They are devoting their time to fishing and other recreation. The two men have been in the south for several weeks.

PEA GROWERS RARIN' TO GO BUT CANNERS HOLD THEM IN CHECK

Factories Will Limit Acreage Because of Prevailing Low Price and Over-production

W. F. WINSEY Statisticians assert and growers admit that peas were the best paying cash crop raised on Wisconsin farms last season.

On account of this report, the early harvesting of peas that admits of two uses of the field in one season and the excellent preparation that a crop of peas gives soil for the succeeding crop, experienced growers are anxious to increase their acreage this spring and beginners are eager to take a hand in the game.

But owing to the big crop last year the unusually low prices that canners are now being offered for their goods and the limited amount of seed peas in the market, canners are refusing to make contracts involving an increase of acreage over that of last year.

The canners are able to dictate the number of acres of peas to be planted by refusing to make contracts for a greater number of acres than they desire and by limiting the amount of seed to be sold to each grower.

Although twelve new pea canning factories have been built recently in the state to begin operations this summer, which under ordinary conditions would cause an increase of 6,000 acres of peas, the established factories will offset this increase by a reduction of their own last year acreage.

As a part of the general program to limit the production of peas so that prices of peas may advance, or at least be kept at paying levels, and so that canning factories may pay growers attractive prices for their crops, the Fox Valley Canning Company, Hortonville, decided to reduce its acreage from 1,100 last year to about 800 this year. This company has bought seed enough to plant the latter number of acres and is refusing to make contracts to plant more acres.

In 10 months this aristocratic producer of Lyons Sarcastic produced 1,032.81 pounds of butter and 21,324.40 pounds of milk. She carried a calf for 191 days during this time.

In 365 days the same year her record was: Pounds of butter, 1,178.35, milk, 23,868.6

to produce a given amount of gain says Anderson. Besides one bushel of shelled corn has a feeding value of one and three-fourths bushels of ground cane seed for fattening baby beef.

But this difference in feeding value is offset by the difference in the prices for these products, especially now when corn is high.

Greenville Man Turns Failure To Success By Ridding Herd Of Scrubs

W. F. WINSEY When Fred J. Wundrow, Greenville, started dairying 25 years ago, he had nothing more nor better than three scrub cows that in the consumption of feed he considered equal to a combination of "hay press" "water tank" and "grain elevator" according to a recent criticism of his on the errors of his early farm activities. In the production of milk the same number of goats could forage for a living and furnish sharp competition to his herd.

But in reality Mr. Wundrow could do no better at the time. He had just bought his farm which was not fenced, two shales and the three cows mentioned. He had no tools but an ax, no feed for his five milch cows and not a cent to pay for what he had purchased including the farm. On the farm stood the unshakable brick walls of an old house that was not fit to live in and near it the unboarded frame of a small barn. The only things that he had and could claim was health, strength, endurance, persistence, ambition and credit. After he moved on the farm he bought feed, provisions, tools and seed, and repaired his house and barn and went still deeper into debt. With the first and each succeeding harvest the burden of interest and debt that he was carrying gradually became lighter and easier to bear, and caused less anxiety to the house hold than at the outset. Five years after he had purchased the farm he felt strong enough financially to assume the obligation of building a modern house and barn. These now are the most conspicuous monuments on the farm erected as if a record of the struggles Mr. and Mrs. Wundrow made from the time they bought the farm and equipment without cash to the time when they were able to pay cash for their purchases.

In speaking to the writer a few days ago about the three scrubs with which he started in the dairy business, Mr. Wundrow said in effect that they were "drawbacks to begin with" and despite his strenuous efforts at improvement continued to remain so to the end. From time to time he added a grade cow of this breed and that to his herd and tried with the use of good sires to get better offspring than were the dams. Instead of raising the production record of his herd as the method however, he actually lowered it gradually. His herd was deteriorating and he knew it. But what was to be done?

The turning point. In their dairy business came when Mrs. Wundrow began to complain to her husband that their butterfat test was lower than formerly and they were getting only a small amount of milk. "Is there any chance for improvement?" Inquired Mrs. Wundrow. "Instead of getting more milk, the longer we keep our scrub cows the longer we are doomed to get less," replied her husband.

To turn failure into success Mr. Wundrow in 1918 grabbed the bull by the horns, so to speak. He did so in this fashion. He bought a purebred Brown Swiss herd sire from Alvin Ludenmann, a Winnebago co. breeder and four purebred heifers of the same type from a Marshfield breeder. Besides raising his butterfat test and increasing his milk flow materially as a result of these purchases he sold a year ago, three purebred Brown Swiss cattle for $500 and through this one sale got back again all the money he had spent in getting started with Brown Swiss pure bred cattle.

BULK OF MEXICAN TAX BUDGET GOES TO SUPPORT ARMY

Subjects Complain Over Denial of Right to Levy Their Own Taxes

Mexico City—Mexico's financial obligations total $188,070,015 in American money, it is stated in a report just made public by the minority members of the chamber of deputies budget commission.

Appealing for careful consideration of appropriations for 1925 the minority commissioners, who belong to the United Radical bloc, assert that the time has come for the removal of the tax levying power from the hands of the chief executive. For half a century, they declare, the people of Mexico, through their representatives have been deprived by revolution and civil strife of the right to levy taxes and spend their revenues.

In outlining the history of Mexican public finance during the last 100 years, the minority commission's study points out that budget deficits have been the cancer which has sapped the government's financial strength and constantly added to its indebtedness.

The war department is credited with having taken the lion's share of the government's revenue since 1913 to 1922, the percentage of the budget total devoted to military necessities fluctuated between 60 and 70. Second only in importance was the part devoted to the services on the public debt, which was allocated $56,500,000 in 1922 and 1924, although the De la Huerta revolution of Dec. 6, 1923, forced the suspension of payments. The item in the 1924 budget for public debt service, however, was $31,000,000, or 25 percent of the total.

The budget now in the making, the report continues, must accept a deficit of $3,500,000 from last year, which increases by presidential decree in various items brings up to nearly $4,000,000. This, added to the principal and accrued interest represented under the Lamont Agreement covering the external debt and other obligations guaranteed by the government amounting to $760,500,000, the internal banking debt the debt assumed in taking over the Tehuantepec railway, unpaid salaries of federal employees and approved claims for revolutionary damages already totaling $470,000,000, makes a grand total of $908,070,015.

GERMAN MOTHER AND SON COME HERE TO MAKE HOME

Several citizens of Germany, who plan to make their home in Appleton and vicinity, have arrived at New York and are now on their way here, according to reports from the Henry Reuter Steamship Ticket agency. Frau Anna Eilks and son, Adolf, who were among the arrivals, will make their home in Appleton.

W. J. Bergacker of Appleton sailed from New York on March 28 on the "Vandam." His destination is Rotterdam, Holland.

Other new arrivals in this county are William and Marie Plagmann of Flensburg, Germany, who will make their home in Weyauwega, and Carl Kroeger of Kiel, who plans to reside in Stephentown.

DON'T DEAL WITH DEMPSEY, FIGHT PROMOTERS WARNED

By Associated Press
New York—The state athletic commission Tuesday closed the Dempsey case in which it sought to force Jack Dempsey into a title match with Harry Wills or Tommy Gibbons and returned the certified checks of $2,500 each which the two challengers had posted to bind the match.

This action virtually eliminates all possibility of Dempsey fighting in the east this year unless he relents from his present position and agrees to meet either Wills or Gibbons.

The commission has said it would look with disapproval upon any promoter in New York state negotiating with Dempsey for another bout in another state. This would lock the door against any effort Tex Rickard might make to stage a match in Boyles thirty acres in Jersey city.

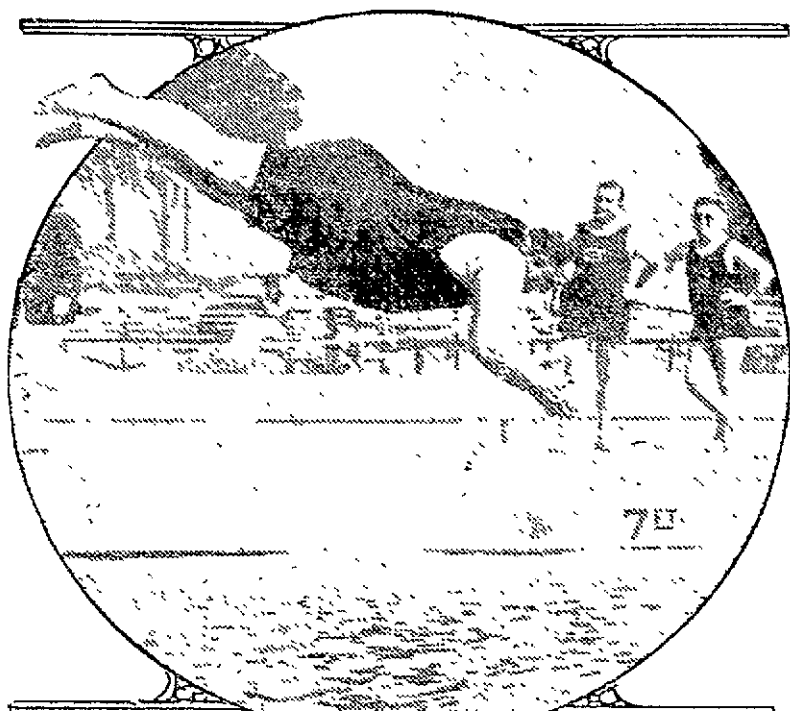

HOLD MARRIAGE OF YOUNG MOTHER IS ILLEGAL

Oshkosh—A bride of less than a year, mother of a baby boy, and herself too young to prosecute a court action except through her guardian, was freed from the bonds of matrimony in the Oshkosh circuit court when Judge Fred Beglinger ordered annulment of her marriage on the ground that the husband, Ray Barnes, had been divorced from his first wife less than a year when he married Grace Mayer at Menomonie, Mich.

Mrs. Barnes declared in her complaint that it had been fraudulently represented to her by her husband that the marriage would be legal, and that it was not until two days after the birth of her son that she was legally advised that her wedding was not to be recognized under Wisconsin law.

The young mother was awarded custody of the child.

THROWN DOWN STAIRS, SUES FOR $30,000

Janesville—Testimony was started in the $30,000 suit of Lester Swenson, Deerfield, against Summer camp, No. 3708 Modern Woodmen of America, and its officers. The plaintiff seeks to collect for physical injuries including a double fracture of neck, fractured skull, suffered when he was thrown out of a dance hall down a flight of 18 steps by Walter Ponzell, an officer of the lodge.

GIRL LETS ESCORT TRY ON RING; HE DISAPPEARS

Fond du Lac—Police here are seeking a young man with a borrowed complex in connection with the theft of a diamond ring valued at $1,000 following the complaint of an Oshkosh girl, a former resident here, that both ring and her escort had disappeared.

The girl, it was reported, permitted her male escort to "try the ring on" last Saturday night. He left the automobile in which they were riding to deliver a basket of groceries.

After sitting patiently in the car for an hour and a half the girl decided to report the matter to her friends, who later laid the case before the police.

The couple had known each other for a considerable time, the police learned.

THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY, CHICAGO, TRUSTEE

Maturities 1932 & 1936 at par to net 6%

Mr. L. B. Kilbourne, President of the Company, has summarized his accompanying letter to us as follows:

HISTORY AND BUSINESS: Central Cold Storage Co. was organized in 1916 by a group of men actively and financially interested in the produce business to afford more adequate cold storage facilities for the tremendous volume of perishable food commodities merchandised in the Chicago district. The Company's stockholders include members of produce and commission houses whose total business represents a majority in volume of sales and financial responsibility of firms engaged in this business in Chicago. Because of these connections and its unexcelled service the Company has been successful from its inception as evidenced by its steady earning record.

PLANTS AND CAPACITY: The Company now has three plants in operation and will soon have a fourth, the South Sangamon and Morgan Street property adjacent to the new Chicago Produce Mart, where there will be a steady demand for cold storage and for refrigeration which the Company will also supply. Upon completion of this plant, for which funds are provided from the proceeds of this issue, the Company will have four complete cold storage plants, located respectively at North Clark-St., and Chicago River, South Sangamon and Morgan-Sts., North Dearborn and Kinzie-Sts., and Blue Island, all having excellent railroad facilities and having an aggregate storage capacity of 10,500,000 cubic feet, of which 9,500,000 cubic feet is cold storage.

SECURITY: In the opinion of counsel these bonds will be the direct obligation of the Central Cold Storage Co., and will be secured by first mortgage upon the Company's fee properties at North Clark Street and the Chicago River and South Sangamon and Morgan Streets. These properties (allowing for completion of the South Sangamon Street plant as provided for by this financing) are valued by your own appraisers as follows:

Land	$1,535,750.00
Buildings	1,282,750.00
Total	$2,818,500.00

EARNINGS: The Company's operations have been successful and profitable from the start and the Company has never had an unprofitable year. For the five-year period ended December 31, 1924, the Company's net earnings, available for interest on its funded debt, depreciation and Federal Taxes, have averaged annually $430,979, or over 3.6 times interest on all of its funded debt to be outstanding on completion of this financing. For the year ended December 31, 1924, such earnings similarly stated, were $505,372. These earnings do not reflect the substantial increase to be expected from the operations of the South Sangamon Street property and include only three months' operation of the Blue Island property completed in September, 1924. The Company is paying dividends on its $2,000,000 of capital stock at the annual rate of 8%.

OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT: The Company's ownership, which includes a majority of the leading produce and commission merchants of the city, and its

Y. M. C. A. Committee Makes Arrangements for District Meet Here

Plans for the district volleyball tournament of the Y. M. C. A. which will be held at the gymnasium of the local association on April 8, one week before the state meet is held here, were practically completed at a meeting of the district committee Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Members of the committee at the meeting were William Zuehlke, chairman, A. P. Jensen, A. W. Agrell, Roy Marston and George Peotter.

Notices will be sent to the newspapers in every town of the seven counties of the district, Outagamie, Oconto, Brown, Marinette, Dorr, Kewaunee and Waupaca, announcing the meet and extending an invitation to all teams in these counties and specific invitations will be sent to places where there are known to be organized teams. These include Neenah, Menasha, Kimberly, Kaukauna, Green Bay, Waupaca, Manawa and Clintonville.

As only six teams can be taken care of, the first six to sent in applications will be entered. The meet will be conducted on a round robin schedule, the same as the state meet which occurs a week later. The same committee which has charge of the state meet will handle the district affair for the practice.

ROOT DESCRIBES FINISH OF HOME

The building of a home, from the foundation to the interior finishing, was described by Elmer Root of the Standard Manufacturing company, at the Home Builders meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening. Mr. Root dealt mostly with the structural part of the building, the necessity of securing the right kinds of materials for certain kinds of buildings, the probable costs and the availability of certain materials in various regions.

After starting with the foundation of the building, Mr. Root told about selection of materials for interior walls, insulation, partitions, roofs, floors and other interior finish, built in features, sash and doors, with comparisons of different materials from the standpoint of durability, adaptability, cost, expense of upkeep and beauty of appearance.

Samples of different designs of doors, sash, roofings, insulation and different woods used in interior finish were exhibited by Mr. Root.

CHICKENCOOP AND 83 CHICKS LOST IN FIRE

A chicken coop with 83 chicks was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon on the John Calmes farm in the town of Grand Chute. The loss was estimated at $200. First reports from the scene of the fire were that the residence and barns were burning, but a later checkup revealed that the clouds of black smoke resulted from the burning of the tarpaper with which the coop was sheeted.

The coop, 40 feet long by 24 feet wide was burned to the ground. The main farm buildings were located at a considerable distance from the coop and although the wind was blowing from the fire directly to wards them, they were never in danger. Neither house nor barns were damaged, it is reported.

NIGHT COUGH QUICKLY RELIEVED

This is the substance of a letter received from H. W. Webb, Quincy, Ill. "I coughed a great deal, especially at night. Tried almost everything and have found nothing to equal FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. One dose relieved my cough and I rested well all night." One of the largest selling cough medicines in the World. Contains no opiates. Safe for children. Insist upon Foley's. Refuse substitutes. Sold everywhere.

Open Bids For Paving Eleven City Streets

Bids for paving streets will be opened by the board of public works at noon Wednesday and the afternoon will be devoted to tabulating the proposals for presentation to the council at its meeting in the evening. Contractors are requested to quote prices on sheet asphalt, Warren bituminous concrete and vibrolithic concrete pavement.

If there are but ten bids the board of public works must tabulate 400 items before Wednesday evening. As there probably will be at least twice that number it is doubtful whether the board will be able to finish its tabulations before the council meets. Consideration of the paving bids will be the chief item on the council's program Wednesday night. Routine business, it is expected will occupy the rest of the meeting.

GOSPEL TEAM TO CONDUCT SERVICE AT KAUKAUNA

Members of the Y. M. C. A. gospel team led by W. E. Smith, of the religious work committee of the local association, will conduct the evening services of the Brokaw Methodist church at Kaukauna on Sunday. No program has been prepared but the team will take care of this matter within the next few days.

The Rev. J. W. Hulen, pastor of the church, is recovering from a recent operation for appendicitis and is unable to conduct his services.
